

Let's Go For A Hayride!

We are lucky to have gotten one of the last spots to have our annual Hayride before Reilly's closes for good! The hayride is our big social event for the high school choirs each fall, so put on your thinking caps to come up with something new for next year...

LET'S GO FOR A HAYRIDE

Where?

Reilly's Summer Seat Farm
1120 Roosevelt Rd
Pittsburgh, PA 15237

Choir members are responsible for their own transportation to and from the event.

When?

Sunday, October 25th
6:00-9:30 pm

We must be there by 5:30 pm!

Please make sure rides pick you up by 9:30 so that Mr. Cloonan isn't standing and waiting with you until after 10:00 pm since we have school the next day!

What?

Annual HS Choir Hayride!

Hayride around farm followed with a bonfire and SNACKS!

Feel free to bring folding chairs, blankets, guitars, flashlights, sticks for making smores, etc.

Who?

Any member of Women's Choir, Symphonic Choir, or North Hills Singers

How much?

$10 to cover cost of hayride and food that the officers purchase

Turn in money in an envelope with your name on it along with your signed permission slip (on the reverse side of this page) to The Unit by Friday, October 23rd!

Additional Comments or Instructions:

Students are on their own for transportation to and from Reilly's. The $10 covers the cost of the hayride, bonfire, and snacks that the choir officers will purchase. It is recommended that you bring flashlights, folding chairs, blankets, and any other "campfire" types of items (sticks for roasting marshmallows, etc.). Please make sure that rides are on time for pick-up. Mr. Cloonan can't leave until everyone has safely left the farm!
