Symphonic & Women's Choirs
Student-Teacher-Parent Agreement
2015-16 School Year

The Information Handbook for Students & Parents outlines the organization of choral ensembles, course grading and attendance requirements, concert dates, policies and expectations for the 2015-16 school year. Any other policy not specifically outlined in this document means that it is covered in the online North Hills High School Parent/Student Handbook. This refers to disciplinary action due to coming to class late, violating school policies, etc. All established school rules will be enforced according to what is outlined in the handbook.

To the Parent/Guardian: By signing below, you agree that you have read and understand the policies set forth by the North Hills High School choral program, and that you will support Mr. Cloonan, counselors, and principals in adhering to those policies. Thank you in advance for helping to make this year's choir to be the best possible experience for your son/daughter.

To the Student: By signing below, you agree that you have read and understand the expectations discussed in class as outlined in the handbook, and that you understand the consequences of not following the rules and policies.

Please return the completed form to "the unit" by Friday, August 28, 2015.
You will receive one week's worth of participation points for returning the form on time.
